

Grandmaster Gregory Kaidanov, one of the top three chess players in the country, competed against and defeated 25 local players in a Simultaneous Chess Exhibition on March 28 in Harrison Hall. More than 100 people attended a lecture by Kaidanov at 2 p.m. and more than 200 were on hand to watch the exhibition. Competitors included Miami students, faculty and residents of Oxford, Trenton, Dayton and Hamilton.