

Havighurst Center Plans a Variety of Events Including Russian Theatre Series in Spring 2003

7:30 p.m. Feb. 9

St. Petersburg Legacy with Da Camera of Houston, Hall Auditorium

5 p.m. Feb. 10

William Brumfield, Tulane University, St. Petersburg Architecture, Humanities Lecture Series, art museum

Feb. 11–May 11

The View From Here exhibition, art museum

8 p.m. Feb. 28 and March 1

From Russia with Love featuring the Miami Russian Tour Choir, Hall Auditorium

March 21-22

Midwest Slavic Historians Conference, Shriver Center

March 4 or 25

Simultaneous chess exhibition with Grandmaster Gregory Kaidanov

8 p.m. March 28

Constantin Orbelian, conductor, Moscow Chamber Orchestra, The Genius of Russian Music: A Lecture from the Piano, 3rd Annual Havighurst Lecture, art museum

March 28-29, Imagining St. Petersburg, Havighurst Symposium in the Humanities, Shriver Center, Bystrom Room

March 29

Russian Chamber Music, location and times TBA

8 p.m. April 23

Da Svidanya, Oxford!, Miami University Russian Tour Choir, Hall Auditorium

8 p.m. April 25

Miami Symphony Orchestra and Concerto Competition Winners featuring Havighurst concerto competition prize winner Seth Gangwer, Hall Auditorium

Russian Theater Series, Short Plays performed by students in Howard Blanning's course Theatre 393: Pre-Revolutionary Russian Theater. All performances are at noon at the art museum: Feb. 6, The Bear by Anton Chekhov; Feb. 20, The Marriage Proposal by Anton Chekhov; March 6, Lady with Lapdog by Anton Chekhov; March 27, The Crocodile by Fyodor Dostoyevsky.

The Havighurst Center for Russian and Post-Soviet Studies is located in 116 Harrison Hall.

For more information call 529-3303.